

LAST SERVICES FOR W. N. ARMSTRONG

URN CONTAINING HIS ASHES IS INTERRED IN KAWAIAHAWO MIS-SIONARY CEMETERY.

The last services in honor of the late W. N. Armstrong were held yesterday afternoon in Kawaiahawo church and the urn containing his ashes was interred in the old missionary graveyard at the church. The church is one of which the father of the deceased, was one of the early pastors. The pallbearers, old-time friends of the deceased, were gathered in the two front pews of the church. They were Governor Carter, Judge Sanford B. Dole, W. O. Smith, Judge Hartwell, Professor M. M. Scott, C. Hedemann, Lorrin A. Thurston, General Davis, U. S. A. (retired), Walter G. Smith, Ed. Towse, Albert F. Judd, Count A. de Souza Canavaro.

Judge Philip Weaver carried the urn into the church, depositing it on the flower laden stand in front of the pulpit. Behind him came Mrs. Weaver, sister of the deceased, on the arm of B. R. Banning, Mrs. Philip Weaver's two children, and Mrs. William Cameron, sister of Mrs. Philip Weaver. Following were Mr. and Mrs. James B. Castle, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Castle and then a group of ladies, two by two, in white, each carrying a wreath of malle. They were Miss Cordie Carter, Miss Nellie White, Miss Marion Scott, Miss Agnes Judd, Miss Annie Alexander, Miss Carrie Green, Mrs. Ranney Scott, Miss Charlotte Hall, Miss Nellie Alexander, Miss Margaret Castle.

Rev. Henry H. Parker, pastor of Kawaiahawo church, and Rev. David A. took place on either side of the urn. A quartet consisting of Mrs. Otis, Miss Hall, H. F. Wichman and L. Tenney Peck sang a selection entitled "Crossing the Bar," followed later by a solo by Wichman. After a few words of prayer by the pastor, the procession reformed, the pall bearers preceding the urn. Passing around the church and into the churchyard the urn was deposited in a small casket and was lowered by Judge Weaver and Henry Williams. While earth was being placed over the casket and ladies present sang "Aloha Oe" and the bells and bouquets of violets were dropped upon the little mound, Rev. H. H. Parker and Rev. A. offering prayer in English and Hawaiian.

RULE TO FIRE THE "TRAITORS"

HUGHES THREATENS TO RESIGN
ON ACCOUNT OF CENTRAL COM-MITTEE ADOPTING ONE.

The Republican Territorial Central Committee on Saturday evening adopted a rule that any member of a convention opposing the nominee of such convention shall forfeit his seat as a committeeman. John Hughes opposed the rule, declaring it an attack on the Civil Federation, while others declared that the rule was necessary to protect the party organization from traitors.

W. W. Harris said that if a man opposing Republican candidates had not sense enough to get off the Republican committee, he should be put off. The remark was greeted with applause.

After the adoption of the rule Hughes remarked that he had been told by a friend that he had no business on the committee and in view of the rule, he thought the friend must be right.

KNUDSEN ON NORWAY

THE SPEAKER OF THE HAWAIIAN HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES WAS IN NORWAY AT THE TIME OF THE SEPARATION OF THAT KINGDOM FROM SWEDEN—SAYS THERE WAS DANGER OF WAR
AT ONE TIME THINKS PROSPERITY IS AHEAD NOW.

"Without having been in Norway, it is almost impossible for anyone to appreciate the joy of the Norwegians over their separation from Sweden," said Hon. Eric Knudsen, Speaker of the Hawaiian House this morning. "There is a buoyancy of spirit, a self-confidence and a thankfulness that break was made peacefully that both well for the future. In the past there has been a feeling of lethargy among the people of Norway in consequence of a connection which they disliked intensely but now they are going forward, I believe, to a great future."

Knudsen has been away from the islands since early last August. He crossed from New York to Bremen going thence to Copenhagen and finally to Christiania, where he achieved the object of his long trip by being becoming the husband of Miss L'Orange. He remained in Christiania for the greater part of his stay in Norway. He returned called out and troops were being hurried to the frontier by thousands. Wis- domers counseled unavailingly. I am glad to say, and I see no reason why the two nations should not live together in amity.

"Micheelsen, the premier, is the idol of Norway today. He engineered the separation and consequently his is a name to conjure with. Financially the country is at present dormant but there are signs of a great awakening industrially. There are extensive mineral deposits waiting to be worked and there are waterfalls innumerable from which immense electrical energy can be developed. The people are poor, relatively speaking, but there is no starvation in Norway."

Referring to his trip through England and France, Speaker Knudsen shattered a much prized theory which is generally accepted. London was bright, gay, warm and clean. The peo-ed by Copenhagen, London, Paris, Monte Carlo, Rome and back through France to New York.

"I was in Christiania at the time of the separation," he said, speaking again of Norwegian matters, "and at one time it appeared certain that Sweden and Norway would fight. Norway was thoroughly in earnest and had been preparing for the step for a long time. She could have put from 60,000 to 70,000 troops in the field and while Sweden's army was nearly twice as large, the Norwegians held the better position strategically, all of the most important passes being commanded from the Norwegian side of the frontier."

"So critical did the situation become at one time that the guests at the Konradsholm Hotel, a big summer hotel three hours from Christiania up in the mountains, all of the guests piled into the city in belief that the crisis was imminent. Sweden was also in a turmoil for all of the reserves had been ple he met were most kind and hospitable at all times. Paris was a contrast. The weather was cold and rainy. The streets were extremely dirty being covered with mud and scraps of paper. The south of France and Italy were very pleasant."

"I performed a classic feat in Rome," said the speaker, "the guide was showing us the wall, or part of it, which he said was built by Romulus. I remembered my Roman history and emulated Romulus by jumping over the wall, much to the disgust of the guide. How high was the wall? Oh, quite two feet."

Speaker Knudsen knew nothing about local politics as he had heard nothing except in New York when he ran across Jack Atkinson. He went to Washington and there met President Roosevelt who appeared genuinely interested in Hawaii. The Knudsens are at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel where they will be for a few days before going home to Kaula.

Apple Butter

Johnny likes it on his bread and the "old folks" think there is no relish quite so good. They are right, too, if the "butter" is made of fine, tart apples, boiled down smooth in good cider with pure spices for seasoning. We have that kind—one of

A Charming Home Light

Electric Light offers the greatest possibility for the display of the practical as well as the artistic in the scheme of one's home lighting.

Dens may have their soft subdued lights that soothe and invite one to reposeful quiet. Libraries may have a white light concentrated on the reading table, with the rest of the room in soft and restful green.

In a dining room carried out in red, for instance, where the pervading tone of the wall covering and other decorations is of the same cheerful hue, the glow of lamps under red shades will add greatly to the effectiveness of the color scheme.

Let us figure with you on the wiring of your home. You will be surprised at the reasonableness of the cost.
